

Boys v Girls

Why not organise a Boys v Girls football or netball tournament. Charge a player fee and ask players and spectators to donate to take part in a penalty shootout or shooting competition!

Dress Down - Fancy Friday

Have a dress down day or fancy dress Friday and ask all your colleagues to make a donation.

Guess how many...

Fill a jar of sweets, paperclips, marbles or anything else you can find and ask colleagues to guess how many there are for a donation.

Cake Sale

Make some scrummy cakes, biscuits or tray bakes and put on a sale for your colleagues... everyone loves a cake!

Quiz Night

Host a quiz night with special prizes, charge for entry and have a raffle to raise extra funds.

Girls Night In

Host an evening for the ladies such as a pamper session, or clothes swapping event, include drink on arrival and nibbles, BYO bottle, Charge for entry and have a raffle to raise extra funds.

Wine Taste Test

Who of your friends or colleagues has the most sophisticated palette? Challenge them to put a selection of unmarked wines in order of value in a blind taste test to find out! Charge an entry fee to take part and have a raffle to raise extra funds.

5 Top Tips

1. Make sure you know who your event is targeted at.
2. Plan, Plan, Plan.
3. Maximise your fundraising opportunities, if organising a bake sale, consider doing a raffle or dress down day to raise extra funds.
4. Promote your event or activity as widely as possible to get as much support as you can. Social media such as Twitter and Facebook are perfect for this.
5. Set a realistic but challenging target, it's helpful to have something to aim for.

Rowathon

Challenge friends, family and colleagues to compete in exchange for a small entrance fee. Who can row the furthest in a set time?

Mega Hunt

Organise a treasure hunt on a huge scale, and charge teams to take part. Whether that's in a countryside or town setting, use your creative skills to create a fun and challenging treasure hunt!

Golf Day

Pull together your friends, family and colleagues to play in a golf day. Charge an entry fee with bacon buttie on arrival and a round of golf. Have a prize giving at the end with raffle and auction.

London to Paris Cycle Ride

Well kind of...! As a team and using static exercise bikes, get sponsorship to cycle the 285 miles from London to Paris in relay!